Friends and families enjoyed live music by local band Happiness Jones June 7, kicking off the 2022 Summer Concert Series.

HARRISON IS A FUN PLACE TO BE THIS SUMMER

Harrisonites—armed with lawn chairs and canned goods for the Harrison Mayor's Community Fund—met at the Harrison Community Center June 7 for the Summer Concert Series kick-off.

With live music rocking in the background, kids cooled off in a steady spray provided by the Harrison Fire Department. The aroma of grilled burgers, hot dogs, brats and metts wafted from the food tent. Many hands were occupied with cold beer and shaved ice.

While the crowd comprised all ages and many walks of life, they all seemed to have one thing in common: they were having a great time.

There are still two concerts: Naked Karate Girls (July 12) and Amy Sailor Band (July 26). The concerts are 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The Harrison Summer Concert Series is made possible by Harrison Recreation Commission a group of volunteers who are also planning the City's Annual Fourth of July Celebration.

Lifelong Harrison resident Mike Dole will lead the parade as grand marshal. He retired from the City's Streets Department with 22 years of service and continues to volunteer and serve as an integral contributor to the success of Harrison's events.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION
